Horseless Horse Project Unit 3 Horse & Horsemanship

I don't own a horse, but . . . . . . .

Directions:

The horseless horse projects are available for all 4-H youth. Animal ownership, care, and riding are not requirements. Members with horses may, however, enroll in this series. All participants should be active in a club or project group supervised by a volunteer project leader.

Four units are available and should be completed in order. Unit I - Introduction To The Horse (9-10 years of age); Unit II - Horses Are Fun (10-12 years of age); Unit III - Horses and Horsemanship (12-14 years of age); and Unit IV - Horse Science (14 years of age and older).

Members may progress through the series at their own speed; there are no definite time or age requirements. All new members should start with Unit I. Clubs or groups may add to and vary the series according to need and interest. Members may repeat units with new and added events and activities. Members completing Unit IV may elect to enroll in the 4-H Horse Self-determined Project. Horseless horse project members are eligible to participate in all 4-H horse events except any that require the use of a project horse. Four-H members may also consider additional supporting projects such as veterinary science, safety, and leadership. Members may include riding time and lessons as options under experience. They may also include such work as grooming, cleaning tack, helping with horse events, etc. Tests and inspectors or leaders must be arranged for at the local level.

Project Requirements

To complete this project, you must:

- Participate in the 4-H club program.
- Complete the topics covered in this book.
